

Chelsea Public Library

Volunteer Policy

Definitions:

A volunteer shall be considered as any individual, 12 years or older, who assists with work done at Chelsea Public Library, without remuneration. Exceptions to the age requirement may be made by the Library Director.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:

Chelsea Public Library shall use the services of volunteers to:

1. Supplement the efforts of paid library staff in meeting demands for quality public service.
2. Serve as a method for encouraging citizens to become familiar with their library and the services being offered.
3. Staff or support fundraising activities sponsored by the Library.

Chelsea Public Library shall make use of the services of interested volunteers to supplement and not replace the work done by library staff.

RECOGNITION:

Recognition is an important component of a volunteer program and is often the only way in which the Library can say “thank you” to a volunteer. The Library staff and Library Board shall find ways of recognizing volunteers throughout the year.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Nothing in this policy shall be deemed to create a contract between the volunteer or intern and the Chelsea Public Library or City of Chelsea. Both the volunteer and Chelsea Public Library have the right to terminate the volunteer’s association with the Library at any time, for any reason, with or without cause.

Neither the City of Chelsea nor Chelsea Public Library will provide any medical, health, accident or worker's compensation benefits for any volunteer. Volunteers will not be eligible to receive any worker's compensation benefits for any injuries sustained while functioning as a volunteer.

Prior to engaging in any volunteer activity, each volunteer will be required to submit a Library Volunteer Application form for volunteer work, and visit with a supervisory staff member.

Volunteers may be asked to work on projects that re supportive of staff efforts. Examples include: Shelving books, returning books, processing new materials, storytelling, helping to prepare for programs, assisting with maintenance of the vertical files, discarding materials, maintenance of periodicals, or public relations activities.

Hours of volunteer service will be determined by the supervisory staff member in discussion with the volunteer. Volunteers are expected to arrive at the library in time to begin work as scheduled or call the library if they will be absent. All volunteer work must be completed within normal library hours. Exceptions may be made by the Library Director.

RECRUITMENT AND SUPERVISION OF VOLUNTEERS:

Volunteers will work directly with library staff members to receive training and complete projects. All volunteers will be assigned one primary staff member to guide them in their work; however, staff members may offer guidance to any of the volunteers.

When appropriate and affordable, the Library may fund the cost of training for volunteers who have made a long-term commitment to the Library. Examples of appropriate training classes are: book mending classes at APLS. There will be no formal evaluation process for volunteers.

The following guidelines have been established to provide consistent information to volunteers and to assure that volunteers fully understand the commitment they are making:

1. A volunteer represents the Library to the community while actively serving as a volunteer.
2. A volunteer is expected to follow approved policies and procedures of the Library during the time of volunteering within library buildings and at library events elsewhere.
3. A volunteer is oriented, trained, and supervised on a continual basis concerning those policies and procedures necessary for the activities carried out.
4. Of special importance in carrying out volunteer activities is observance of the Library Bill of Rights, adopted by the Chelsea Public Library Board of Trustees. Under the Library Bill of Rights, the Library must protect the confidentiality of each library user, and assure equal access and the freedom to read and inquire of each user regardless of age, religion, and race, nation of origin, background and views.
In carrying out the requirements of the Library Bill of Rights, volunteers actively working in the Library may not express their religious, political, social or other personal views to members of the public. They must protect the confidentiality of each library user. Violation of these special trusts, policies, or procedures is reason to discontinue the volunteer services.
5. In the light of the time and expense involved in training and supervising volunteers, the Library may decide to discontinue or change a volunteer's service assignment, which it determines is not beneficial.
6. Volunteers fill out an information form, which is used by the Library to assure that the volunteers are involved in activities appropriate to their skills, experience, and interests.

ORIENTATION FOR VOLUNTEERS

1. Introduction of person doing orientation and introduce volunteers.
2. Review Volunteer Policy, Library Bill of Rights, and confidentiality.
3. Discuss specific job description and parameters of that job.
